

Why do these people need to contact us for "business" purposes?
They have my address if they want to sell me something. If I am late on a payment they already have the right to contact me. So what other reason would they have? If I go to the bank they ask me to add extra services and so on. Please don't let them start calling me at home.